COUNCILMEN SAY ELEVEN 'UNBUDGETED' EMPLOYEES ASSIGNED BY EX-MANAGER

Outside Firm Mulls Fee On Special Audit

Arthur Andersen Company, 600 California street, San Francisco, a national auditing firm, conferred with Daly City officials this week on the price it would ask for making a comprehensive survey of the city's books covering last fiscal year.

Westmoor Park Pact Delayed

Development of Westmoor Park, eight acres located at the southern tip of Westmoor High School, has been delayed considerably because the Daly City Council has not yet ratified its new fiscal year capital outlay program. The city's money for this shared project comes from this fund.

Westmoor Park is a 50-50 proposition between the high school district and the city of Daly City. It is to be used as a community recreation site when school is not in session. In a letter to Finance Director Joe Arch, Superintendent Ed Morgan stated the district has spent $32,721.61 on this site for curbs, gutters, sidewalks and other work. The city has expended only $12,268. The school district is $20,453.61 ahead of the city — and waiting.

Morgan said the district has set aside $31,200 for the park project, from the Civic Center Fund, for the fiscal year 1959-60. He told the trustees Monday night that the city has this project high on its list of immediate projects but must wait until the city capital outlay budget is finalized. High school trustees last week voiced approval of plans and authorization for the city to call for bids on Westmoor Park. But the city can't match the school district in per-year contributions to the park development until the municipal capital outlay budget is adopted.

DC Man Feared Drowned After Fishing Mishap

A new resident of Daly City is feared dead after a mysterious boat mishap Tuesday morning 30 miles west of the Golden Gate bridge.

Missing and believed drowned is Clifford Miller, 41, whose address was listed by San Francisco police as 330 Skyline drive here.

Authorities said Miller, who owned the fishing boat, was accompanied by Norman Carpenter, 43, of San Francisco, and Edward Benson of San Leandro. Benson frantically called the Coast Guard after he awoke to find Miller and Carpenter missing from the deck. The guard rail on the deck was broken.

Carpenter's body was recovered from the water a few hours later. Miller has not been found.

Elderly DC Woman Is Found Dead On Kitchen Floor

Leila Butman, 71, 64 Los Olivos avenue, was found lying dead on the kitchen floor at her home last Sunday at 11:40 a.m. by Mrs. Sylvia LaBounty, 498 Niantic avenue, according to police.

Officers John Coleman and Charles Munday said the deputy coroner arrived and stated the woman died of natural causes. The remains were removed to Lasswell's mortuary.

She was last seen alive Friday evening by her doctor. The physician said the elderly woman refused medical treatment and would not go to a hospital.

Mission St. Tracks To Go Via $100,000 Outlay From State

State Highway Commission in Sacramento today announced that its allocation of $8,783,000 to San Mateo County for fiscal 1960-61 highway projects includes $100,000 to Daly City for the removal of the old street car tracks on Mission street between Vale and Shakespeare streets and the construction of a median center island down Mission.

POLICE GRAB DOPE SUSPECT AT DRUGSTORE

Alert pharmacists at Daly City Drugs, 6331 Mission street, aided police in apprehending a man who attempted to forge a prescription and purchase narcotics last Sunday.

An exact date as to when the $100,000 would be released to DC was not announced by state officials. Most of San Mateo County's funds from the state—$8,180,000 of the total $8,783,000—will be to purchase right of way for the 19th avenue freeway through San Mateo and for the Junipero Serra freeway. The $5 million first increment for the Serra route is just a small portion of the total needed to complete the purchase of needed land.

William J. Gamba, clerk at the store, took the prescription from the man and became suspicious as it was made out on plain white paper and not the usual prescription blank. The prescription was made out to Marie Thompson, 1107 Haight street, San Francisco, and was signed by "Dr. Sidney Prior of Placerville."

Tom Bournellis, owner of the drugs company, and Gamba told the man they were all out of this drug and would have some the following day.

Inspector A. J. Gazzola of the State Narcotics Office was notified and he searched the files but couldn't find a Dr. Sidney Prior listed in Placerville. Gazzola, Howard Groom and Daly City Police Sergeant Jerry Galindo hid in the back room the following afternoon.

Harland Ray Kuhn, 32, 450 Harrison street, San Francisco, was questioned when he asked for the prescription. At first he claimed he was getting

Hospital Unit To Enlarge

North County Mayors Committee met again Friday evening at Colma School and made plans to expand the central committee working for the establishment of a hospital district by vote of residents sometime in 1960.

Chairman Andrew Rocca, mayor of South San Francisco, said his committee would be enlarged to include leaders in communities within the proposed district and that the larger group shortly will be able to finalize its move for the election next year.

Dr. Sanford Marcus of Westlake, head of the north county physicians committee, is working with Mayor Rocca, Mayor Edward Dennis of Daly City and Mayor Jean Fassler of Pacifica in gathering all the data pursuant to the establishment of the hospital district.

A letter to the mayors' committee from Dr. Harold Choche, head of the San Mateo County Health Department, confirmed that the north county area should have high priority due to its population boom and high land values.

The proposed hospital would serve residents of Daly City, Pacifica, South San Francisco and adjacent unincorporated areas.

Dr. Marcus said the mayors are studying the hospital district boundaries prepared by Councilman Leo Ryan's now defunct committee in South San Francisco. In addition, the possibility of federal funds to help finance the hospital will be fully explored.

Marcus said the hospital would not mean a heavy new tax for residents, pointing out the success of the Peninsula Hospital District which, according to Dr. Choche, is now self supporting.

Marcus said the hospital up this way would add revenue to the communities, create more jobs and increase local purchasing of supplies.

From a service standpoint, Dr. Choche noted that health services in the north end of the county are much lacking in comparison to the other essential services the communities are providing—police and fire protection.

A site for the hospital also has to be negotiated for. Several areas have been mentioned. It is anticipated that the hospital will be centralized so that access to it from the three biggest north county cities would be most feasible.

A fund-raising drive in the various communities to kick off the hospital drive also is contemplated.

The hospital committee will meet again on the night of November 10 at Colma School, starting time 8 p.m.

'Bad Conscience' Burglar Admits $2900 DC Raid

Jack G. Johansen, 26, 217 Columbus avenue, San Francisco, claiming his conscience was bothering him, Monday turned himself over to San Francisco police for the theft of $2900 worth of cash and jewels from a Daly City home almost four months ago. San Francisco police turned Johansen over to Daly City Sergeant Jerry Galindo Tuesday. Officer Neil L. Jordan, of the SFPD, said Johansen had been drinking and made the statement, "you would have caught me sooner or later anyway."

Johansen worked for Louis Fiting, a restaurant owner, and had a key to the latter's house at 370 Miriam street. On July 10 Johansen entered the premises and worked on a safe for three and one half hours before drilling his way through.

Johansen told Jordan he kept $2400 in cash but threw the drill and jewelry into the bay from the middle of the Golden Gate Bridge.

Twenty-eight-year-old Phil Brown, a graduate of San Francisco State with a degree in business administration, checks the city's documents with the assistance of clerk-typist-secretary Veronica F. Wight, 23 Clifton drive. Brown is assistant city manager and directs personnel affairs. He has served in this capacity here since December of 1957.

ATTORNEY WAS CORRECT

Claim Unaware Funds Weren't In New Budget

Daly City councilmen today attempted to set the record straight on the 11 temporary employees who were knocked off the city's payroll September 15 after working during the summer months despite the fact that funds for these jobs were not budgeted. A total of $7300 in salaries was paid these workers before they were released.

When City Attorney Paul Hupf apprised the council of the situation—the jobs were not in the new budget—not one councilman attempted to block Hupf's order that these temporary workers be dismissed.

City Finance Director Joseph Arch confirmed with Hupf that the jobs were not budgeted. Such appropriations normally are made by council action, using unappropriated reserve funds.

Nine of the 11 temporary employees worked in public works as maintenance crew personnel. The other two worked in the engineering department, one as a draftsman and the other as a junior civil engineer. Both of the latter two positions were authorized in the budget of last fiscal year, but were not authorized for the new fiscal year beginning July 1, 1959.

All five councilmen claim the hiring of additional temporary personnel during the summer time is a usual occurrence. But the council admits they were not aware there wasn't enough money set aside in the new fiscal budget for the hiring of the 11 men who were dismissed. Apparently this "notification" is the responsibility of the city manager, who at the time the 11 men were put to work was George W. Watts. Watts was fired by the council in August and the council agreed that a general outside audit was necessary to determine if the city's finances were in order.

Of the 11 employees whose duty was terminated without council opposition, six of these admittedly were recommended for employment by three of the councilmen. Councilman Francis Pacelli said he submitted three names, Councilman Joseph Verducci declared he recommended two of the employees, and Mayor Edward Dennis admitted he asked that one of the men be put to work.

Councilman Michael DeBernardi and Councilman Bob St. Clair flatly said they had nothing to do with the 11 "unbudgeted" employees. Dennis, Pacelli and Verducci, however, pointed out that they did not put the men to work—that this had to be done by the city manager. They added that if funds for the employment of these men were not available, this fact should have been brought to their immediate attention by Watts. This was not done, they maintain.

Dennis remarked that all 11 men "put in a full day's work," an assertion confirmed by Publication.

Richard DeLosada, 20, 498A Parkview avenue, last Wednesday evening about 11 o'clock was driven to his Daly City apartment by cab driver Thomas Smart, 43, 590 Atlanta street, and when the latter stopped to collect his fare, DeLosada flung open the door and jumped over a fence.

Sergeant David Hansen and Officer Richard Sims a few minutes later knocked at the door nearest to the back fence and DeLosada answered. He denied taking a taxi, stating he left work at 4:30 p.m. and had been home the rest of the time. He was standing in the doorway wearing a trenchcoat and slacks but was minus a shirt and shoes.

Smart said "without a doubt," DeLosada was his fare. DeLosada was arrested on a drunk charge.

TRIES SUICIDE

Westlake Housewife Strangles Her Son

The 31-year-old Westlake mother who strangled her six-week-old son with a necktie Friday afternoon and then tried to take her own life with barbiturates, almost succumbed Sunday but rallied and is back on the road to recovery.

Daly City police said formal charges against the distraught woman, Mrs. Edyth E. Levine, 1106 87th street, Westlake, have yet to be filed. She is confined to Community Hospital.

The housewife, who also has a four-year-old daughter, phoned her husband at 11:30 a.m. Friday, hysterically telling him that she had strangled the boy, Stephen Richard Levine. The father, Richard Levine, a salesman for a San Francisco retail advertising firm, hurriedly notified San Francisco officers who in turn called DC police.

According to assistant DC Police Chief Roy McLaren, the infant was believed to have been dead at least an hour before the woman phoned her husband. Officer Les Bastedo tried breathing in the baby's mouth when he arrived but it was much too late. Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage drove the baby and mother to Junipero Serra Hospital where the infant was pronounced dead on arrival. Sergeant Rico Benedetti then had the woman transferred to Community Hospital. Benedetti found the tie used to choke the infant in another bedroom.

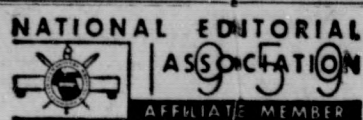

McLaren said that Levine revealed that his wife threatened to take both children, the boy and a four-year-old daughter, and jump off a cliff about two weeks ago. He depression apparently was caused by her fears that caring for two children was too much of a burden.

Rape Charges Here Against SF Trio Erased By Judge

Rape charges filed by a 19-year-old girl against three San Francisco youths following their arrests in Daly City on October 9 were dismissed in SF municipal court last week for lack of evidence.

A court spokesman said the girl was a suspected prostitute.

She said she was raped in the morning hours of October 9 by Orin LeRoy Wakefield, 3333 24th street; Robert E. McGee, 378 Highlands street, and James A. McGee, 3456 Army street. Wakefield formerly lived in Daly City and has been in trouble before, according to DC police.

CREeping PARALYSIS AT CROSSINGS

Neither the high school authorities nor city officials seem to pay any attention to the "creeping paralysis" displayed by Jeff High students when using the crossing across Mission street in front of the high school. Of course it is necessary to get to school, but it is not necessary for the students to dominate the use of the crossing completely.

This "domination" of the crosswalk by the students, who so much as dare any motorist to use Mission street while they "dilly dally" across both ways—to the school or to the opposite side to partake of refreshments at a nearby store, will end only one way, if not corrected—death or serious injury for one or more children.

Not only are the high school authorities apathetic to this problem, but the city is also completely indifferent. Can't we do something to alleviate this situation before it becomes tragic?

Of course we can—but someone is going to have to wake up and face the facts before it is too late. Crossing signals will not be installed for some time—so let's get busy.

WE WOULD LIKE THAT, TOO!

Many of Daly City's employees "never had it so good" as they do at present.

The council a few months back authorized the purchase of virtually an entire fleet of new vehicles—and what has happened?

Instead of driving their own personal cars to and from work and in making unofficial trips, many city employees are taking the new vehicles home, using them as they see fit and probably not even gassing them up at their own expense.

Perhaps these department heads feel the taxpayers should foot the bill for this extra-curricular transportation—it's much easier that way, and besides a brand-new vehicle adds to the prestige of individual jobs.

It seems to us—and by common sense—that these municipal vehicles are city property and should be used entirely for city business—and nothing else.

Transportation to and from work can hardly be defended. Or are these individuals who are using these cars for non-business pursuits willing to pay for their use and the additional mileage?

Certainly, it is nice to drive a new car. But only if it belongs to you—and not the city and its supporters, the taxpayers!

Vandal Splatters Westlake Woman's Auto With Mustard
Vandals apparently have been trying to make a hamburger of Virginia Welch's auto and the Westlake woman is getting more perturbed with each new incident. Latest escapade was last week when mustard was spread over the front and back seats and the ceiling of her 1954 auto. Approximately a month ago, Miss Welch, 32, 842 North Mayfair avenue, complained to police that salt had been poured into the gas tank. Officer James Sunderland questioned a 14-year-old concerning the mustard spreading but the boy said he had never been involved in any act of vandalism.

'Pro And Con' Arguments On Adult Education

By LOUIS FRANCIS
State Assemblyman
25th District

A perennial poser which haunts our legislative labors is the adult education program. Fiercely defended by its supporters, it is subject to equally violent attack by those who claim most of it is a waste of taxpayers' money. We legislators are strictly in the middle and must bear up under a barrage of pro and con arguments.

One important cause of our troubles is that adult classes are offered on four different levels, high school, junior college, state college and university. This has resulted in duplication of subjects and classes, with consequent competition for students as well as state and local funds. Recently a subcommittee of the Assembly interim committee on education held a hearing to investigate the possibility of eliminating duplication, wiping out frills, and reducing state aid.

Not too many of us are aware of the vast proportions of the adult education system. I confess I was a bit startled when told that more than 453,000 persons were enrolled in adult classes at the high school and junior college levels alone at the last count, plus an additional 60,000 to 70,000 at state colleges and in university extension. And these figures include only those taking less than ten hours of classes per week.

State aid for adult education in high schools and junior colleges has been budgeted at almost $11 million this year. How many more millions are involved at the colleges and universities cannot be determined easily, but the net cost to taxpayers has been unofficially estimated at least $2 million. These costs do not include amounts spent from local funds for adult classes.

Enrollment in adult classes is sky-rocketing almost as rapidly as enrollment of youth in regular school classes. One district reported an increase of almost 60 per cent in seven years, and many others report growth at least as great.

Leaders in adult education who appeared before the subcommittee expressed their fear that any cut in state financial assistance might threaten the program, at least so far as unified, high school and junior college districts are concerned. They reported that many employed persons use the adult education classes as a means of further technical or professional training. Many of California's most up-to-date and progressive industries, such as electronics, chemicals, and guided missiles depend on adult classes for continuous, off-the-job instruction of their workers to keep up with rapid advances in technology they contend. Equally, employed individuals seeking to acquire professional status use the program to pick up needed credits.

The matter of so-called frills, such as courses in tap dancing, finger painting or the like, was not touched upon at this preliminary meeting. However, one witness did state that much adult class time was devoted to crafts or other subjects not connected with working for a certificate, diploma or degree.

The problem of duplication, or near duplication of course in the same field by institutions serving the same areas, was explored at some length. Adult educators admitted that it does exist, and agreed that it should be kept to a minimum. It is a continuous job to prevent duplication, one witness said, and close coordination between all adjacent districts must be maintained to prevent it.

LETTER-TO-EDITOR

Housewife Charges DC Council With 'Back Room' Government

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

Am I misinformed or is there a law against "back-room" government?

After many evasive answers, the majority of the city council finally admitted Monday night that they had asked the Director of Public Works to resign, at the same time insisting that no action had been taken at a public meeting. Is it any wonder that the people of Daly City are losing faith in their government? If Mr. Calhoun had resigned, no one would have been the wiser except for the few who may have heard some rumors.

Why was Mr. Calhoun to resign? Could it be that he is doing his job too well?

Mr. De Bernardi's blackboard demonstration of the city financing may have worked well in a classroom but it didn't prove anything to me. When are we going to have a complete audit?

I would like at this time to compliment you and your newspaper for your excellent coverage of the council meetings and for your efforts to enlighten the people of Daly City about what is going on in their government.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Stephen Goin, Jr.

Jeff Elementary Teachers 'Not In Politics'

Dear Editor:

Last year our organization was injected into the local school board election entirely on the action of one individual. We felt, 90 per cent of us, that we had no place in partisan politics and this was one of the big issues in the local J.C.T.A. election with an entire new slate of officers elected who are not interested in electing or defeating candidates for school board or any other office. Neither do we think any of the teachers rights have been infringed upon—we simply wish to remain out of all political activity this year—thus this news report. Please use it if or any part of this letter, if in news column form.

'Complete Audit Only Guarantee Of Good Books'

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I wish to commend both your editorial and reporting published in the Westlake Times (dated October 28) and The Record (dated October 29).

The article entitled "Protection Or Vindication" is truly an opinion showing feelings for the best interest of all the citizens of Daly City. Your comment that councilmen should not be primarily interested in "saving themselves" reaches deep down to the core of our civic problems.

Further, you state the councilmen should attempt to learn if our budget policy requires improvement and also that they should convince taxpayers that the city's finances are in order. I agree heartily that there appears to be a need to study our budget policy. However, I would like to think my city government officials responsible for the budget and expenditures and revenue and are continually studying the budget throughout their terms of office.

With respect to city finances, how can the councilmen convince taxpayers that city finances are in order. It appears the city bookkeeping records require a comprehensive audit before anyone would be in a position to say the city finances are in order.

I was pleased to read your interpretative reporting of the Calhoun problem.

Sincerely,
Marvin N. Nathan

Sometimes you can't win for losing.

For instance, the city's and Westlake Improvement Association's upcoming lawsuits against Stuart Bartz, Westlake resident at 1 Westdale avenue, who has built a wall-patio cover contrary to municipal and association ordinance and deed restrictions.

Julio Profumo, Bartz' neighbor who urged the city and association to sue so that the wall will come down, now says he won't join DC and the WSIA in the legal action.

It seems a bit awkward that Profumo isn't even a paid up member (annual assessments) of the Westlake Association, although Bartz is.

The council and association aren't too happy about Profumo's failure to follow through, either.

Westlake Improvement Association officials are proceeding with long-standing litigation against two pioneer Westlake homeowners who have refused to pay the annual assessments as per deeds on their property.

Association officials claim they have "no idea" how many Westlake homeowners are determined not to pay the assessments. All the association wants the public to know is that the majority of the residents in Westlake are dutifully paying the assessments without argument.

It would be interesting for the association to disclose—by checking their books—how many homeowners are on the other side of the fence—those in the category of "won't pay assessments unless it is ordered by the courts."

Citizens who have asked why the council is taking so long to adopt the new DC zoning ordinance should exercise some patience.

San Francisco supervisors this week finally adopted that city's new zoning code—after 12 years of stormy meetings and charges and counter-charges.

The more time spent in studying and amending new zoning laws the more representative these documents will be in reflecting the wishes of interested homeowners and businessmen.

The citizens' committee report on the advantages and disadvantages of charter form government for Daly City should be a good report this time and not just an idle endeavor as in political days long gone.

Mrs. Grace Woods, former city library commissioner from Westlake, is chairman of this study committee. You can be sure she and her associates did some real work on the charter survey.

It will be interesting to see how the council reacts to the report—and if they will follow through and seriously examine it.

It's always nice to appoint a committee. But committees oftentimes become convenient deities. Some issues assigned to committees are soon forgotten and only are raised with political objectives.

Daly City beyond a doubt has the most inadequate city hall (building) of any community on the Peninsula (except for Pacifica where the Coastsideers have many problems and of financial necessity must take one thing at a time).

What happened to Daly City's citizens' committee which recommended sites for a new civic center?

And how about long-rumored talks for the purchase of a site and erection of a Police Athletic League Clubhouse? Everyone connected with these negotiations seems to be passing the buck. Any kind of a progress report is better than silence.

Whether or not the council is dissatisfied with Public Works Director Otis Calhoun's performance is a matter of record, but at least one municipal governing body is interested in Calhoun's services.

Calhoun recently was asked to become the public works chief for the well-heeled city of Beverly Hills—the land of swimming pools and millionaires.

Don't let anyone fool you. In the absence of a full-time, professional city manager, things are virtually at a standstill as far as DC progress is concerned.

Any organization needs a strong guiding man at the helm to coordinate overall management. This lack of coordination causes all kinds of confusion and prompts all types of excuses.

FUN GALORE AT THESE TOP SPOTS

HIGHLIGHT of the popular Sai Wu Garden Chinese restaurant in Westlake is the beautiful and exotic oriental garden just inside the entrance. Waitress Margaret Huey (foreground) and owner Mrs. Ethel Barrie are pictured here in the "garden" setting. Sai Wu offers dining room service, as well as takeout and delivery, seven days a week.

It's time to start thinking about taking the family out for Thanksgiving and we're not a bit premature. As you can recall if you have ever taken the family out on this festive occasion, reservations will be in order. Restaurants like Val's Redwood Room, even with their expanded facilities, have a tough time taking care of the stampede on Thanksgiving. Save time and worn nerves—call for your reservations as soon as you know you're going out for dinner.

With food prices going the way they are now—days, it pays to take another look at your local restaurant menu. We don't recommend that the family eat out every night of the week, but when you do eat out, it's pretty close to the price you pay when you shop for the family dinner at home. Try checking some of our specialty restaurants on this page for just such inexpensive menus. You'll be surprised when you check Toto's, Caboose Pancake and Uncle John's pancake house.

TEENAGE PROPHET

Long Distance To Dick Clark

Promptly at 9 o'clock in the morning the telephone rang. "Mr. Clark is calling," said the operator. So last week all the way across country from Philadelphia we had our first telephone interview with Dick Clark, ABC-TV's popular star of "American Bandstand" (weekdays, 4 p.m.), "Dick Clark Show" (Sat. 7:30 p.m.) and new program "World of Talent" (Sun. 10:30 p.m.) all seen locally over KGO-TV.

This is a heavy schedule for any TV performer but Mr. Clark seems to take it in stride and still finds time to write a weekly advice to teenagers column which is syndicated in 34 newspapers with a combined circulation of 12,000,000. Also he has just completed a book (on sale Nov. 16) titled "Your Happiest Years," which he told us has the theme of "How to live with yourself, being a teenager."

To be the idol of thousands of young people is a tremendous and at times rather frightening responsibility. In fact, we asked him if he didn't find it so. He agreed, and indicated that he is deeply aware of his public responsibility. Also in our interview we detected a fine sense of quality rather unique in the world of show business. Discussing his afternoon show he told us he is "most fond of this program because it was the start of everything good that has happened to me."

We asked him to sum up in

Colma K-6 Student Injured In Fall Off 'Monkey Bars'
Mary Lou Thomas, 11, 172 Miriam street, was injured recently when she fell while hanging from the "monkey bars" located in the rear of Colma School, near the K-6 section. Officer John Coleman found the girl sitting in a crouched position in a chair near the school's office. She said she could not straighten up.
The girl was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by M&D Ambulance while Coleman notified the girl's mother and drove her to the hospital.

one sentence what advice he could give to teenagers. He laughed and said he wasn't sure he even accomplished this by writing a whole book. He did come up with a good answer, though. He said, "This is the time of your life which should be your happiest. Enjoy these years, and don't get too discouraged with those of us who are older." Certainly sage advice to the younger generation!

Something For Everyone

BY
SAMUEL CHANDLER
City Librarian

What do you want to know: how to fix your car? how to feed the baby? how to give a party? Your Daly City Public Libraries can help you if you'll give them a chance.

Books in libraries are classified by their subject matter, and the number of books in the various subjects are carefully chosen to keep the collection in balance, thus making it possible for the Public Libraries to serve everyone in the city. To make sure that everyone is satisfied, the library staff tries to choose the most useful books in each field. The results will surprise you.

Let me cite an example. At the present time the Library at 6351 Mission has seventeen books on auto repairing. Included are Motor's Auto Repair Manual, Popular Mechanic's popular series of manuals for Ford owners, Chevrolet owners, Plymouth owners. These books added to titles that deal with special parts of an automobile make our collection of auto repair books most useful.

The same thing is true of your libraries' collection of books in other fields. Take cooking for example. We have The New California Cookbook, The New Serve It Buffet Book, the Goodhousekeeping Cookbook, The Pacific Hostess Cookbook, The Complete Book of Home Preserving, the Emporium's Modern Cookbook for Busy Women, and many, many more.

So it goes we have the right books for each person in Daly City. We can help you learn how to train your dog, raise your canary, finance your club's yearly program, figure your income tax, sail around the world, make a new dress, learn to type, make a budget, read Russian, fix the bathtub, make your own toys, draw a picture, work your camera, play bridge, beat the boss at golf.

Add to the books in these subjects the hundreds of others in nearly every conceivable subject and you can see at once how useful the public libraries of Daly City are to the people of this fair place. All you must do to avail yourself of its services is come in.

The libraries are located at 6351 Mission and 34 Park Plaza in Westlake.

Martin Orloff County Chairman For Xmas Seals

Martin Orloff of Colma has been appointed countywide chairman for the 1959 Christmas Seal Sale. It was announced today by Dr. Walter Gaines, president of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

The seal sale will begin on November 16 with delivery of the traditional stamps to fight TB to 90,000 homes in San Mateo County.

"As an insurance agent I'm very much aware of the need to fight tuberculosis to the finish," Orloff declared in accepting the appointment. "Personally I've had several clients rejected for policies when their physical examinations showed they had unsuspected TB. But even more sobering, the company I represent — whose figures are typical — pays more claims for tuberculosis than for all other infectious diseases combined."

Westlake Sea Scout Unit Earns More Honors At Farragut Regatta

Once again local Sea Scouts, all Daly City and Broadmoor lads, have reaped top honors for their unit.

Sponsored by Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association, the group attended the Admiral Farragut Regatta at Mare Island Navy Yard with 58 other Sea Scout and Explorer Scout units.

The local Sea Scout Ship completed all events with top scores, and took home a third place plaque to add to their ever-growing accumulation of trophies. A special award was given for having placed second, of the 59 total participating scout ships, in the highly competitive "heaving the line" event.

Chuck Castle, the ship's oldest boy and one of its charter members, accepted the awards from the admiral commanding the naval base.

Ten of our boys took part, representing Daly City, and the ship's two officers, Jay F. Irick and Bob Gunthorp, were present throughout. A new Regatta record for the rope climb was set by Irick, who went up hand-over-hand to 25 feet in nine seconds flat. However the record had to remain unofficial, as the officers, who are adult leaders, cannot enter their scores to benefit the unit.

The unit left from and returned to San Francisco aboard the Sea Scout Ship Dolphin as guests of the Dolphin's skipper, Charles Eberling. Barracks accommodations and food — acclaimed the best at any regatta yet—were provided by the Navy.

The admiral virtually turned over his base to the boys for the weekend. Tours through submarines and other vessels were arranged, busses provided, the Mare Island Navy Band was present at formations, the sub service training school was thrown open and, in all, the participants had an excellent time.

The Farragut is the last regatta of 1959. Several are scheduled for next year when, once again, the boys will compete against units from all the Western United States.

Membership in the unit is limited; however, there are vacancies now for three boys interested in joining this unit. Boys 14 and older are invited to apply by contacting Gunthorp, PL 5-2181, or by being present at the meeting place, Westlake Auditorium, on Wednesday nights at 7:30 p.m. Frank De Martini is the senior unit member, assisted by crew leaders Dave Kazakoff and Bruce Wilson.

Methodist Speakers To Talk On Africa

"Africa, New and Old" will be the theme which Mr. and Mrs. Earle L. Menker will use for the Commission on Missions Dinner to be held in Fellowship Hall at 6:30 p.m., on Friday, November 13, at Temple Methodist Church.

Dinner tickets are $1.25 for adults, and 75 cents for children up to and including 12 years of age. These may be purchased from Mrs. Ernest M. Stone, MO 4-7909; Mrs. Francis T. Bassett, MO 4-1549; Mrs. Merle H. Barton, PL 5-1772; or the Church Office, JU 6-1444. All tickets must be purchased by Thursday, November 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Menker, former members of Temple Methodist Church, are now members of the First Methodist Church in Oakland. On the evening of November 13, Mrs. Menker will be interpreting their colored slides of experiences in most of the countries of that vast continent, while Mr. Menker will preside at the slide projector.

Mrs. Menker is an active church woman who has given many years to the missionary program, not only in her own denomination, but to numerous others. She is a member of the board of trustees of the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley; chairman of the expansion-development committee of that board; member of the World Affairs Council of Northern California, as well as the American Academy of Political and Social Sciences; active in the Council of United Church Women, having served nine years as field secretary for Northern California-Nevada; and teacher of a large adult church school class in her home church.

Mr. and Mrs. Menker have traveled widely in over 100 countries, studying the missionary program and activities of the church in all its phases of service; they have shared in native life and fellowship, and have been entertained by the leading officials in many lands. Out of all this, they are now giving folks here in the homeland, the benefit of their experiences, and as two lay people, not being "sent" by any board, their gift is large in terms of helping others to understand the peoples of the world.

THESE ARE SOME OF THE NUTS, BOLTS AND SCREWS THAT WERE NOT PUT INTO THE BODY AND FRAME OF THE 1960 PLYMOUTH.

They can't loosen and rattle because they're not there. Instead, Chrysler engineers now bring you Dura-Quiet Unibody: a body and frame that's a single unit welded around 5400 times for super strength. You will feel and hear the difference the first mile you drive the Solid Plymouth for 1960.

Expect a pleasant new experience when you first try the '60 Plymouth. What happened to the "car sounds" you used to think were normal? They're gone, in the new Solid Plymouth. They were built out of it from the start. And they won't appear later to haunt you, because this car is built to stay quiet for a long, long time.

Quiet durability is only one of the advantages of solid Unibody construction. You'll notice unusual new comfort as well, and new handling ease.

We think this is the best built, best performing car in the low-price class. Try it and see what you think.

Rams Buried By 54-0; Face Hillsdale Today

Hillsdale's Knights, not content with chopping off a Ram head, badly battered the body around after the Westmoor team was dead last Friday to remain unscathed upon in league play and take a 54-0 decision at the loser's burial grounds.

And, as often happens, Westmoor meets tough competition again this Friday, facing Capuchino's Mustangs (3-0) at Cap at 2:45 p.m.

Optimists Set '51 Or Bust' Bowl Tourney

Lake Merced Optimists Club is sponsoring a "51 or Bust" bowling tourney at Westlake Bowl starting at 1 p.m. on November 17 through November 22 with the $1 donation money going to Daly City youth programs.

Carl Davis, chairman for the tourney, said the monies raised would go toward furnishing Police Athletic League teams with needed equipment and other youth benefits for groups sponsored by the Lake Merced Optimists.

Each bowler will get six balls to roll at 60 pins. The bowler will then have to score five strikes and knock over one pin to get 51 on the head to win. Scores over or under 51 will be discounted, he said.

First prize is $25. If the bowler hits "51" a second time he receives $50 and $100 if he makes it a third time.

SAN MATEO PLAYS HERE FRIDAY

COSGROVE QUILTS JEFF! LINE-UP CHANGES DUE

Jeff High's Indians lost their right arm Monday when Marty Cosgrove, the Peninsula League's top passer with 38 of 83 passes for 446 yards, quit school to go to work.

Cosgrove had three-fourths of the Indian offense in his right arm and another one-third in his legs when he would decide to run. Now Coach Joe McGrath will have to revamp his line-up completely.

McGrath may make more changes than a femme TV performer on a special show. Thus far, he has Bob Miller and Tony Montalbo working out as quarterbacks. Both are up from the JV's. McGrath calls Miller, "One of the most promising sophomores to come up to varsity ball in a long time."

"He's kind of leery of playing varsity ball and acts nervous, but if he settles down he could prove to be an outstanding quarterback," McGrath opined.

If neither of the two JV promontees work out McGrath is tinkering with the idea of letting Roger Stahl take over duties as tailback for this Friday's 2:45 p.m. tilt against San Mateo High.

Another move would find Bob Nielson, right guard and captain of the team, moving into Stahl's fullback position when he makes the move to tailback. Nielson is outstanding every game, says McGrath, adding, as an offensive guard or defensive linebacker he gets the job done.

Joe Bollentini, a sophomore lineman, was praised for his defensive work by McGrath. Jim Caruso, left guard and end on defense, broke his nose in the first quarter of the Mills game two weeks ago and will have to sit out a couple of weeks of play. His place has been taken by Dave Butler.

John Margaroni will play as soon as the doctor gives him clearance, McGrath said. Margaroni has been working out in gym clothes as of late and his help is needed badly with two other backs, Steve and Lynn Anderson out for the season along with Cosgrove's loss.

"We played eight minutes of good ball against Burlingame and then laid down. If we play the same type of game against San Mateo we'll get slaughtered," McGrath said.

"Capuchino and Hillsdale are the only really strong teams in the league. We've played good games against Cap and Mills but just ran out of gas. The Burlingame tiff was another matter; we just laid down and died," he commented.

Cosgrove's passing yardage against Burlingame last week was good, 110 yards, but his completion percentage was not up to par, 6 for 20. The Panther secondary contained his tossing and rode home with a 47-13 win.

The Jeff running game was "tea-weak," gaining but 44 total yards. Art Banos gained the most yardage, but it was a paltry 24 yards in 10 carries.

Burlingame got an early scare when Jeff took the opening kick-off and marched 80 yards in 17 plays for the opening TD. Cosgrove passed for three first downs and ran for one other before sneaking over from the one.

With just time for one play before time ran out in the half, Cosgrove and Sal Blas completed a 64 yard pass scoring play. Bob Miller stepped back and tossed for the extra point to Harry Leininger.

The score was 20-13 at halftime but the Indians didn't get another smell of pay-dirt after that. Larry Schilbe went wild for the Panthers. He ran back an interception for 45 yards and also trudged 27 yards for TD's. In addition he pitched two goal line reachers.

San Mateo has a 2-1 record under the guidance of Coach Yale Rohlf. In the past he has used two units to alternate and this may wear down a small Jeff squad if he puts it into effect Friday.

In the last outing, the Bearcats downed South City, 20-14, scoring their final TD in the last 1:56 of the game with Elias Cornejo plunging over from the one.

W'moor Runners Beat Burlingame, Move To Third

Westmoor's cross-country varsity, JV's and frosh-soph teams all were victors over Burlingame's squads last week.

The varsity paced by Jim Buccelli (2), Ron Klingler (3), Jay Garnett (6), Chuck Dake (7) and John Millward (8) beat Burlingame, 26-29.

Frosh-soph victory was due to the efforts of Frank Bellante, John Dyer, Jim Beeler and Brandt Larson in the 24-37 meet. With Bill Geiss and Mike Hoffman finishing a near 1-2, the JV's won handily, 15-48.

In other recent cross-country runs the Rams varsity lost to Lincoln (SF) by 25-32 and Capuchino 26-29. The frosh-sophs beat Lincoln, 20-39, and lost to Capuchino 20-37. In a special freshman race the Westmoor lads lost 20-41 to Cap.

200 Daly City Youths Enjoy 'Football Day'

Two hundred boys, eager to learn the fundamentals of good football, were on hand last Saturday to hear San Francisco State College Coaches Joe Verducci and Vic Rowen give information and advice to the "players of tomorrow" at the Daly City "Youth Football Day."

The coaches were accompanied by 12 state college football players, among whom were Little All-American quarterback Jim Sochor, halfback Jesse Racines, fullback Hank Marshall, and end Ford Joy.

Verducci handled the backfield and ends and stressed to the youth the value of good grades in school if they intend to play football. He drove his point home by calling several complex signals such as a quarterback would authorize in a huddle.

Rowen handled the linemen which included instruction in centering for both single wing and T-formation, types of offenses, blocking, pulling the guard to lead interference and tackling.

Rowen stressed that football is a "team effort in which every man had an assignment to carry out, and if one person misses a block or fails in his assignment, the whole team suffers."

ier last week, the triumph over Burlingame gave the Ram 20's a 7-2 league record — second behind undefeated Capuchino.

Westmoor's 110-pounders defeated SSF, 22-15, but lost to Burlingame, 25-17. Ty Tolomieu led the Rams against SSF with 7 points. He got 6 points against Burlingame.

SF STATE quarterback Jim Sochor, a unanimous Little All-America choice last year, gets ready for the snap from center during Daly City's football clinic Saturday at Westlake and Marchbanks parks.

Behind the five SF State stringers is DC Councilman Joe Verducci, coach of the unconquered collegiate eleven. Scores of Daly City kids listened attentively and watched wide-eyed as Verducci and his "troops" ran through plans and discussed techniques of the game.

PIPE-UP THERE: One attractive San Jose State coed sitting in front of us at the SJS-Stanford "goal line obliteration" was smoking a pipe. Very feminine, however, and not as offensive as it may seem. The young lady's small pipe had small jewel on it and she held it like a woman should. There was less smoke coming from the pipe than the explosive game.

WDBM — AIR RAVES: Gaining air raves for their defensive prowess is station WDBM. The Los Angeles Rams better have the right frequency or they'll be turned back by Woodsor Dove, Baker and Mertens of the 49ers. Their initials, naturally are WDBM.

PREDICT-SHUN: We won't mention that we picked San Jose State to defeat Stanford. The 54-36 Injun singin' was the most points scored at Stanford's Stadium, 92. It was like watching a tennis match. Sore neck anyone?

THEY PULLED A — BOBO: Best news in ring circles is the cancellation of the fight between Ancient Moore and Bobo Olson. The fiasco has been delayed in order that Bobo can fight Yvon Durelle. Durable Durelle should dispose of boppable Bobo in short order.

LITTLE GATORS — GROWING: San Francisco State's Gator are unbeaten, untied and nearly untouchable. Everybody knows that, Coach Joe Verducci! But what about the JV squad? They're unbeaten, untied and nearly untouchable. "Them that has gets, them that don't has don't gets."

FOOTBALLERS WEST-MOORED: Still moored and hoping to pull up an anchor that has them chained in the lost column are the Westmoor Rams. With four first stringers out they may have trouble getting a win. Jefferson is in worse shape. Three injuries and Marty Cosgrove's quitting school has left the Indians with little hope of gaining a Peninsula League victory. The issue may be settled when Westmoor and Jefferson meet next Friday. One will have to be a winner — unless the game is tied. The winning coach (Pete Matisi or Joe McGrath) should get a trophy. Better yet, a recruiting contract for all junior high schools in California. Dividends such as cookies, ice cream or candy could be given to entice these youngsters to attend the high school.

GOOD WARNE-ING: Jeff High 120 basketball coach Rick Warne served notice on Peninsula League teams that though he is a social studies teacher for two periods during the day his team is anti-social when it comes to getting licked. Warne's highlight thus far this year is the knocking off of a strong Westmoor team that had only lost to the league leader (Capuchino) previously. Mike Orlich, PE Department head had coached both the 110's and '20's for 11 years before the current chapter started. Orlich capably handles the 110's while Warne is coming along fine without 10 players who will be playing 130's because of a lack of communication between Commissioner Paul Hannig's office and Jeff High.

CAPUCHINO JV'S BOMB JEFFERSON GRIDDERS, 32-6

Jeff High's JV's had their season's mark evened at two wins and two losses Monday by dropping a 32-6 decision to Capuchino at the Indians' home field.

Cap was ahead 26-0 before Jeff managed to get on the scoreboard. The Indians gained 102 yards rushing and 28 passing for a total yardage mark of 130.

Jeff moves to South San Francisco next Monday to engage in a battle with the Warriors.

Holy Angels 7th Grade Gridders Capture Title

Holy Angels School's seventh graders won the North County Intermediate School Touch Football League title last week with an 18-6 victory over second place Millbrae.

Halfback Roger Kueich pace the champs to their sixth win without a loss by scoring two touchdowns. End Dickie Crofton caught a pass for the third Holy Angels tally.

Father Tomas J. Farrell of Holy Angels accepted the trophy after the game on behalf of his team. Coaches are Roger Kueich Sr. and Al Driscoll.
